Any and all books relating to American history. Go to the library and do a search, find books at your reading level, which you might find interesting. Historical fiction, biographies and nonfiction books are a good place to start. Have fun with this. Since we will be studying American history, this will give you some good background with which to start the year. Keep a list of the books you read over the summer. This list will be worth your first extra credit points of the year!
