PHILOSOPHY

- We, as a parish school, believe that true community is achieved by living out the Good News of the Gospel.
- We believe in the spiritual, intellectual, social-emotional, physical, and creative development of the whole person.
- We foster the development of our students in partnership with parents, the primary educators of their children.
- We respond to our ministry by inspiring students to reach their full potential in a secure and loving environment.
- We, as a Catholic community, emphasize service to God, one another, the Church, and the world, thereby developing a commitment to social justice.
